

INFANT MORTALITY RATES

Overview:

The World Bank has collected data on economic, education, and health related outcomes from 209 countries during the years from 1960 to 2009. This data set, collected in 1995, consists of a subset of these indicators for 4 regions of the world.

Source:

The data were obtained as public access data from the World Bank (<http://data.worldbank.org/>).

Sample Size/Contents

The data consist of 74 countries.

- Country: Country name
- Pop: Population
- Urban: Percentage of population living in urban areas
- Religion: Predominant religion
- LifeExpF: Average female life expectancy
- LifeExpM: Average male life expectancy
- Literacy: Percentage of population who can read
- Babymort: Infant mortality rate. This rate is based on the number of deaths per 1000 live births.
- Region: Region of the world (3 = Asia; 4 = Africa; 5 = Middle East; 6 = Latin America)